HIGHGATE

PRELIMINARY AS BLOCKING 2011-13

This information is correct as of 17th May 2010; however, changes are sometimes made when issues arise over the construction in the next few months of this year's timetable, which have a knock-on effect on what can be offered in 2011. We will advise you, if you submit your choices early, if we have to make changes. The final version of this form will be available in September 2010.

At Highgate, the timetable in the Sixth Form is constructed in four blocks. The formation of these blocks is the result of experience over the years of what pupils are likely to want to study and they allow for most usual combinations of subject. In December 2010, once our own Y11 pupils have made their choices, and once we know the wishes of the external candidates whom we accept into Y12 for 2011, we may alter the blocks, if we can, to accommodate combinations which are not currently possible. We cannot promise to be able to do so, but, if you cannot choose your ideal subjects from the existing blocking, please still choose four which do work but also state below your preferred combination.

Group 1	Group 2	Group 3	Group 4
Art Biology Chemistry Design Technology Economics English Literature Government & Politics Latin Music Philosophy Russian Spanish	Art Chemistry Classical Civilisation Design Technology Economics English Literature French Greek History Physics	Biology Economics English Literature Geography German Government & Politics History of Art Mathematics Further Mathematics* Philosophy Religious Studies * if chosen you must also choose Mathematics in group 4	Economics English Literature French Geography History Latin Mathematics Further Mathematics* Physics Religious Studies Theatre Studies * if chosen you must also choose Mathematics in group 3

You need to choose a subject from each of the four blocks

Please explain problems you may have over choosing your four subjects and write below your preferred combination, if it is not available under the above blocking structure.
