

KYFFIN WILLIAMS PUPIL ARTWORK EXHIBITION

When Sir Kyffin Williams, Art Master at Highgate from 1944-73, died in 2006, his belongings were left to the National Library of Wales in Aberystwyth. Amongst the items in the Bequest were some 250 pieces of pupil artwork painted while Kyffin was working in north London. 25 named pictures have been selected for exhibition in the Mills Centre, together with a few more mature works by some of his more successful former pupils.

The formal opening will take place on Thursday 3rd November, with refreshments available from 5.30 p.m. and a talk by Dr Paul Joyner, Head of Purchasing and Donations at the National Library, about the Bequest and Kyffin's relationship with the Library at 6.00 p.m.

On Wednesday 16th November, Ian Massey, Subject Leader in Communication Arts and Design at the University of Huddersfield, will speak about the life and work of Patrick Procktor at 5.00 p.m. Ian authored a highly-regarded biography of Procktor that was published last year.

On Wednesday 23rd November, David Porteous-Butler OC will talk about Kyffin's influence on his career at 5.00 p.m. A former pupil of Kyffin, David is a successful artist based in Suffolk:
