

Royal Parks Foundation Half Marathon

9 October 2011

The Royal Parks Foundation Half Marathon is one of the most scenic city runs in the world taking place on Sunday 9 October 2011. Starting and finishing in Hyde Park, the beautiful 13.1 mile route races through four of London's stunning Royal Parks (Hyde Park, Kensington Gardens, The Green Park and St James's Park) and offers runners magnificent views of some of the capital's most iconic landmarks, including Buckingham Palace, the Houses of Parliament, the London Eye, Marble Arch and the Royal Albert Hall along the way.

Over the last three years, the Royal Parks Foundation Half Marathon has raised £8m for vital causes around the UK, for over 200 partner charities, including the Royal Parks Foundation, Mind, Scope and UNICEF.

Cecile Pottier (Modern Languages), Kathryn Kramer (Deputy Head of Sixth Form) and Helen Gardiner (Housemaster, Midgate) will be running in support of the Samantha Dickson Brain Tumour Trust, which aims to find a cure for brain tumours through funding research and supporting those suffering from brain tumours and their families.

More information is available on their website:
(<http://braintumourtrust.co.uk/what-we-do/about-us/>)

If you wish to donate money to this worthy cause, please go to:

<http://www.justgiving.com/Cecile-Pottier>

Target: £1,500.00
Raised so far: £376.20

25%