Extra-curricular activities

This purpose of this questionnaire is to enable applicants for teaching posts to summarise the leisure and recreational activities (especially, those not related to their teaching subject) that interest them. It also gives applicants the opportunity to indicate which of these activities they would like to bring to Highgate School, to enrich the School's extra-curricular provision.

Please fill in the grid below. We recognise the importance of supporting and training all our staff, so please let us know what you think your needs would be in this area. For example, if you play football yourself, you might want to be involved with football at school, but would like some training beforehand in refereeing and the health and safety aspects of supervising a pupil game. By mentioning something below, you are not committing yourself to undertaking that activity if you are employed at Highgate, but your interests may be explored at interview and an offer of employment would refer to the extra-curricular interests covered at interview. Types of activity you might like to consider are: cultural (e.g. film, theatre, literary or art appreciation); creative (e.g. art, music, drama or writing); physical (e.g. outdoor activities, indoor recreation or competitive sport); community service, voluntary and charity work (local or overseas); your hobbies (anything, from origami to ornithology).

Activity	When do you do (or when last did you do) this activity? What is / was the frequency?				Your level or standard e.g. “beginner”, “good”, “expert” “keen amateur”	How would you like to offer this activity at Highgate School?	What training or support do you think you would require?
	At school	At university	In the last 6 months	Currently

Please continue on a separate sheet if necessary.
